ORDER:

In the reference first read above, Sri N. Balasubramanyam, IPS (AP:1994), Additional Director General of Police (Organisation) has informed that he got admission for the Executive MBA in the prestigious NewYork University Leonard Stern School of Business. The EMBA program will enable him to acquire skills to manage large organizations with diversity and dynamic business environment. It will also equip him to manage change, use technology and innovation to evolve sensitive, impartial and citizen centric police force by redesigning the selection, recruitment and training. The EMBA will also enable him to build appropriate data monetization and evolve financial models to effectively utilize the resources of police department and also to develop new financial tools for increasing the resources of the Police Department. The course is taught by World renowned faculty for Public Finance Management, Debt Restructuring, Investments etc. which can be leveraged by A.P. State appropriately. That, the tuition fee for the Course is US $ 2,04,000 and he needs support of the Government in this regard, as it is difficult for him to incur the expenditure from his savings. The MoS has requested to grant him two years study leave starting from 29th January, 2021, under the provisions of AIS (Study Leave) Regulations and requested to sanction the course fee. In the reference second read above, the Director General of Police (HoPF), Andhra Pradesh has forwarded the proposal to Government for consideration.

2. According to the guidelines issued by the Government of India for financing the courses offered by Foreign Universities, these Universities / Programs must be among the top ranked Universities as per Times Higher Education Rankings (THE Rankings) or QS World University Rankings (QS Rankings). The Course of Management in New York University, Stern School of Business is ranked among the top 25 courses in top 100 universities in the world as per QS Ranking / THE Ranking. The Partial Funding of Foreign Study under the Scheme of Domestic Funding Foreign Training for Top 25 universities in THE or QS ranking or top 25 courses in top 100 universities in THE or QS Ranking is US @55,000 for the long term courses of more than one year. Further, there are instances where State Government provided additional support by sanctioning gap funding to the AIS Officers in order to encourage the them to pursue higher education courses from best Universities in the World.

3. Government, after careful examination, decided to provide support of US $1,49,600 and a long term loan of US $ 54,400 towards total course fee of US $2,04,000 to Sri N. Balasubramanyam, IPS (AP:1994), Additional Director General of Police (Organisation), O/o the Director General of Police (HoPF), A.P., to pursue the Executive MBA in the prestigious NewYork University Leonard Stern School of Business, as a special case on exceptional basis.

(Contd..)

4. The Director General of Police (HoPF), Andhra Pradesh shall take necessary action for drawal of the Government funding and long term loan sanctioned in para-3 above and to recover the principal amount from the salary of the MOS in equal monthly installments on the loan drawn charging the interest after completion of principal amount before retiring the Member of the Service from the service. The amounts shall be released as per the payment schedule given by the University for the course. The Member of Service shall submit the claim in advance for release of the amount and submit the dated acknowledgments of the University once he pays the fees / other expenditure.

5. This order issues with the concurrence of the Finance Department, vide their U.O.No. FIN01-HR0TFR(FINC)/1/2021 (Computer No. 1315313), dated 07.01.2021.
